PANTHERS AND S.D.S. DEPRECATED BY CASE

CAMDEN, N. J., Sept. 7 (AP) —Senator Clifford P. Case said today at a Labor Day observance here that the Black Panther party, the Students for a Democratic Society and similar groups had "no place" in the United States.

The New Jersey Republican spoke at the 76th annual memorial service for Peter McGuire, an early labor leader.

He said: "There is no place in this country for extremists." "Those people meeting over in Philadelphia don't have any answers that are useful" for the cause of unity, he added.

Senator Case referred to a three-day meeting sponsored by the Black Panthers at which radical groups gathered to discuss issues they are concerned with.

He also said: "The S.D.S. has no answers for the young people of this country. Their leadership is not valuable, it is counterproductive and organizations like you in organized labor understand this."
